Bourbon Circuit Court.

There was no session of the Circuit Court Tuesday, Judge Stout going over to Lexington to attend a meeting of the trustees of State University, of which body he is a member.

In order to facilitate the business of the court for the balance of this week Judge Stout will continue to hear motions and arguments in equity cases each evening till 10 o'clock, as this is the last week of the November term.

In the case of E. F. Spears & Sons vs. George M. Taylor, of Georgetown, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs in the sum of $1,414.28. The suit was for the non-delivery of a purchase of bluegrass seed, the defendant failing to answer.

Wednesday was consumed in the trial of Maggie Wilson vs. the Germania Insurance Company and after hearing the testimony, on both sides Judge Stout gave peremptory instructions for the plaintiff in the sum of $38.25 and costs incurred in the suit. Morgan & Darragh, of Carlisle, represented the plaintiff, while the defendant company was represented by McMillan & Talbott.

The case of Butler vs. the Lexington Herald, next on the docket, was continued till the March term of court and assigned for trial on the fourth day of the term.

The case of Nancy N. Shropshire vs. George R. Burberry, in which the jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $2,400, will be appealed to the Court of Appeals.

Col. Robt B. Franklin returned from Frankfort Tuesday. Colonel Franklin says his son Raymond will be spared the loss of his hand and is now able to be about his room in the King's Daughter's Hospital.

The grand jury reassembled Wednesday morning and put in a busy day, and made a partial report.

The following indictments were returned and filed: Bud Warren, murder; Zep Lee Current, murder; Arthur Roberts, cutting and wounding with intent to kill; Spence Allen, same; Noah Williams, shooting with intent to kill; Moss Munson, horse stealing; George Pringle, housebreaking; George Hutsell, same; James C. Moore, assault and battery; Charles Link, assault and battery and carrying concealed weapons.

The grand jury will probably finish its business today and make a final report.

Judge Stout appointed W. D. McIntyre, Newton Mitchell and M. R. Jacoby jury commissioners, and before entering upon their duties he instructed them to select the best men in the county for jury service at the next term of Court.

The case of George Crosdale against the Bluegrass Traction Company occupied the time in Circuit Court yesterday. Mr. Crosdale is asking for $10,000 damages for alleged injuries received several months ago by being thrown from a buggy which was struck by an interurban car on South Main street several months ago.

RELIGIOUS.

—President Crossfield, of Transylvania University, continues to preach strong and powerful sermons to the great crowds that are attending the meeting at the Paris Christian church. One of the pleasing and impressive features of the meeting is the song service led by Mr. J. H. Sturgis, termed the singing evangelist.

President Crossfield's subjects for the remainder of the week will be: Friday evening, "Thou, God, Seest Me;" Saturday evening, "Prepare to Meet Thy God;" Sunday morning, "What the Disciples Do Not Teach," and Sunday evening, "The Door Was Shut." There have been forty additions to the church up to yesterday and unabated interest is manifested as the meeting progresses.

—Installation services will be held at the Second Presbyterian church Sunday morning, at 10:45 o'clock, when the Rev. Dr. B. M. Shive will be installed as pastor of that church. Rev. W. W. Akers, of Maysville, will preside at the services and propound the constitutional questions to the pastor and deliver the charge to the congregation. Rev. Dr. J. W. Tyler, of Midway, will preach the sermon and Rev. Dr. J. O. Reavis, of Marshall, Tenn., will deliver the charge to Dr. Shive.

The services will be very impressive and a special musical program for the occasion.

Rev. Dr. J. O. Reavis will preach at the evening service.
